

94.08.01 workshop FRI session 27 speaking Capital Punishment

1. Criminal, offender, perpetrator, delinquent, wrongdoer, felon
2. To many capital punishment is abhorrent
3. But some say it can be viewed as
4. a valid means of punishment
5. It can be justified as a penalty
6. Three conditions must be present
7. Discuss it in more depth
8. rules are made and enforced to protect members of society
9. In cases where the murder committed is so frightful
10. Society cannot allow the perpetrator back into its fold
11. Impossible to welcome him back into society
12. Under certain circumstances
13. Death penalty may be the only answer
14. Crimes against humanity
15. Genocide
16. Terrorist attacks
17. If the offender shows no remorse at all
18. Incapable of feeling any shame
19. The offender cannot be rehabilitated
20. Another important consideration is
21. The accused is guilty beyond reasonable doubt
22. There must be no doubt as to his guilt
23. If he is imprisoned and later found to be innocent
24. He can be released from prison
25. If the punishment is death, it is impossible to make amends
26. There have been a number of examples in history where
27. They were found to be innocent after being hanged
28. If any situation does not contain these components
29. Morally wrong to impose a death penalty

Good luck!
