

the birth day party

Petey and Meg are couples that lived in coastal town about 60 years old. they have a boarding -house where that no one had lived for long several times, except one 30-years old young man that called Stanley.

Before that time, he was a successful musician but some enemy prevented obstacle him from his activity. He came to a coastal town in order to because of escape from of threats. this story begans with two unacquainted men man that apparently came for diversion. they were both wicked and knew stanley and arrived supposedly on his birthday and appeared to have come came looking for him.

In conclusion, this birthday that was organized by Meg apparently was calm and safe but turned into a nightmare night mare for him.
