Euthanasia=mercy killing=assisted suicide

Terminate sb's life=end so's life

Murder sb=kill sb

The pain and suffering of refugees

Mercy killing is presumptuous in the extreme

It is totally unacceptable

Doctors are bound by oath to save lives not end them

Who is to guarantee that

Some may be tempted to access old people's personal wealth

In the extreme=very much

Presumptuous=BRAZEN, overconfident, arrogant, bold, audacious, forward, familiar, impertinent, insolent, impudent, cocky; cheeky, rude, impolite, uncivil, bumptious

It is a highly contentious issue

It has given rise to strong emotions

The nuclear deal has given rise to high hopes among our citizens

On both sides of the debate

There have been instances where

There have been instances where ordinary people were murdered in the name of euthanasia

Assisted suicide can end the pain and suffering of terminal diseases

Some say it is an act of mercy

Containment of inflation

Good luck!
