

94.04.05 workshop FRI session 11 child labor

The issue of children doing paid work

A sensitive issue

It is difficult to judge whether it is right or wrong

Opinions differ as to the learning benefits

Varying concerns

An important consideration is the kind of work (which is) undertaken

Doing arduous and repetitive tasks

Such children are less likely to be learning

There are health and safety issues that need to be considered

It is an unfortunate fact that

Use the services of children and underpay them

This type of exploitation should be discouraged

However small, the additional income may be a relief

They contribute to the family economy

Nevertheless, in better economic circumstances

Few parents would do this/ barely can we find a parent who would do it out of greed

Light part-time jobs

They can help their parents around the house

These can be of value in children's development

Inasmuch as = because

Are less prone to heart disease

Good luck
