

94.04.12 workshop FRI session 12 continuous education or a break after high school

It is quite common

Have a break from studying

A growing trend

Not peculiar to a certain class/the rich

It is also evident among the poorer layers of society

They choose to work

Economically independent

Pass directly from school to university

They are restricted

In terms of knowledge and experience of the world

Spend time earning a living or travelling

They possess/have/enjoy a broader view of life

They can draw on better personal resources

Cope with the challenges of student life

There are dangers in Taking time off

Important age/formative years

They might never return to their studies

Might find it difficult to readapt to the academic environment

Continue in a particular job

Academic qualifications are essential for getting a decent job or a reasonable career broaden their horizons

get a clear perspective of what they are hoping to do

Good luck
