

A person's worth nowadays seems to be judged according to social status and material possessions. Old-fashioned values, such as honor, kindness and trust, no longer seem important. To what extent do you agree or disagree with this opinion?

Along with the development of human civilization we are moving away from some of the values namely, tenderness, compassion and amiability. By this I mean, nowadays people tend to someone who has a specific position in society and more assets rather than the ordinary people with gentility. The question is which of them ~~is are~~ superior to other ~~to-measures~~ ~~measure of~~ a person's worthiness.?

There is an idea that wealthy people deserve to be praised and respected by the people since they have tried more to achieve their goals and gain exclusive status. In some way, this is a real fact. however, most of the ordinary people are creating so many ways to reach ~~a the~~ high social position and they are hard-working as well. Despite ~~of~~ so many efforts, they are not that much success~~ful~~ ~~about~~ those especial points. There is so much destructive effect if the people admire each other by their possessions. ~~;~~ they will lose their original personality. Moreover, they will face lots of problems ~~like likely~~, depression and anxiety. They could not find anybody to respect and support them just because of the humanitarian sense. In consequence, ~~of that~~ they ~~are prone to will~~ commit a crime and also, they ~~might even~~ attempted ~~murder~~ ~~or and~~ suicide.

Furthermore, some values such as, affection and mercy would not be old-fashion~~ed~~. Just there is a point that the government and some organizations should expand the effect of kindness in every level of ~~the~~ society for example, poor people, ordinary people, CEO~~s~~ and even the president and the King. ~~Through~~ ~~By~~ some advertising and some kind of education system provide an opportunity to ~~make it~~ feel ~~it~~ better. ~~In From~~ this way, all the people become more conscious about the incredible place of kindness in their lives. In addition, people respect and ~~are~~ proud of themselves due to their attitudes and behavior.

Overall, ~~;~~ we could not ignore the main concept and result of kindness to ~~the~~ societies and people. From the beginning of ~~the~~ ~~mankind~~ ~~men-kind~~ until this century, honor ~~has have been-~~ had an inevitable place in ~~the~~ people'~~s~~ lives. All of us should show the real impression of kindness to each other and motivate others to judge other person~~s~~ by their behavior. This is not possible unless, ~~we~~ respect all the people around the world regardless of their social status and like them.
